District Governor's Message

2010 District Conference

Dean Dickinson
District Governor

everyone coming to the conference must register even if you are not participating in the meals. It is going to be great to see all of you and to share in the great story of Rotary. I have obviously had the chance to preview some of the sessions and they will move each of us to a different place in our Rotary life. I also know that the fun things that are planned are going to provide us with a respite from the sometimes intense messages that will be presented in our plenary sessions. I am thrilled with the fact that visitors from seven foreign countries will be in attendance and that does not include the Youth Exchange Students who represent over thirty countries from around the world. Unlike other years, this year they will fully participate in the conference and enrich the experience for all of us.

And so, with that, please, come and join with your fellow Rotarians from around District 6250 as we celebrate our successes, educate ourselves to what might be possible and motivate ourselves to advancing world understanding, goodwill and peace through the work we do in Rotary.

Yours in Rotary,

Dean Dickinson

Pre-Registration at the 2009 Conference

Last year at the District Conference in Wisconsin Rapids I made an offer that anyone who wrote a check to the Rotary Foundation in the amount of $100 would be rewarded with the following:

- A match of 100 recognition points.
- Entry into the raffle where three members won a gift basket.
- A waiver of the registration fees for this year's conference.

Subsequently, the conference committee, at my request, waived the registration fee for this conference. This was done to encourage attendance. The monies given last year went straight to the foundation...not into the conference account for this year. After discussing the situation with several members involved the decision is that each of those who pre-registered will have their names entered into the Foundation Raffle at the District Conference. This in addition to whatever other
